

Mr. Kuldip Singh is a highly accomplished professional with over 40 years of experience in auditing, finance, accounting, and operations within private-sector banking and financial institutions. Renowned for his leadership and expertise, he has successfully managed teams and executed complex projects, making a substantial impact across the financial industry.

He has held senior executive roles at Bank of Boston, where he distinguished himself in complex financial markets such as São Paulo, London, and Mexico, ultimately concluding his tenure as CFO and Vice President overseeing operations and joint ventures in Mexico.

Following this, he joined KPMG, where he served as an audit partner for 25 years, specializing in risk management, professional practice, ethics, and independence. Throughout his career with KPMG, Mr. Singh spearheaded critical projects in areas including risk assessment, audit practices for financial entities, and due diligence processes across Panama, Central America, and the Caribbean.

Mr. Singh is a recognized expert in International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), International Standards on Auditing (ISA), and PCAOB standards.

He holds an MBA from the University of Louisville and a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from Universidad del Istmo. Additionally, he has contributed as an instructor for the IFRS certification program at the Specialized University for Public Accountancy (Unescpa) and served as a regional instructor for KPMG across Latin America.

Mr. Singh is fluent in Spanish, English, and Portuguese.