Circular No. 040-2008

General Manager
Panama City

Ref.: Certifications of the General Directorate of Administrative Career.

Dear General Manager:

Heeding a request of the General Directorate of Administrative Career, we hereby advise you that the Authorization Certifications issued by said Directorate have the same validity as the Certificates granted to the Administrative Career Public Servants.

The previous observation is done heeding a notice of the General Directorate of Administrative Career, which points out that there have been cases wherein the Banks reject Certification submission.

In case of needing additional information on this subject, please communicate directly with the Directorate of Human Resources Administration of the General Directorate of Administrative Career, phone 505-4500.

We are grateful to the General Manager for giving the Bank's staff the instructions needed.

Attentively,

Olegario Barrelier
Superintendent

Superintendent of Banks

Mr. Superintendent:

We hereby advise you that the authorization certificates issued by the General Directorate of Administrative Career have the same validity as the certificates granted to the Administrative Career Public Officials.

Please notify this information to the Banks of this market, since some Administrative Career Public Officials have lost their certificate, they come every day to the General Directorate of Administrative Career to request the certification, and later they let us know that the latter is rejected by the Banks.

Any other information that the Banks may need in this regard, please address the query to the Directorate of Human Resources Administration of the General Directorate of Administrative Career, to Argelia Zambrano Barletta, phone 505-4500.

Attentively,

ARNULFO A. DE LEON V.
General Director
