RESOLUTION SBP-PSO-R-2024-00482
29th August 2024

THE SUPERINTENDENT OF BANKS in use of his legal powers and

WHEREAS:

By means of Law 23 dated 27th April 2015, the measures to prevent money laundering, the financing of terrorism and the financing of the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction were adopted.

Article 22 (1.g.) of Law 23 dated 27th April 2015, establishes that businesses providing payment instruments and digital currency, will be supervised and regulated by the Superintendency of Banks exclusively on matters related to the prevention of money laundering, the financing of terrorism and the financing of the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction as financial reporting entities, among others.

By means of Rule No. 5-2015 dated 26th May 2015 on prevention of improper use of services provided by other Reporting Entities under the supervision of the Superintendency of Banks, the guidelines that said obligated must follow are established in matters of Prevention of Money Laundering, Financing of Terrorism and Financing of the Proliferation of Weapons of Massive destruction.

Article 2 of Rule 5-2015 establishes that regulated entities must take the necessary measures to prevent their operations and/or transactions being conducted with funds or on funds resulting from activities related to money laundering, the financing of terrorism and financing the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction crimes. For this, they are required to comply with the terms established in the legal provisions and rules related to this matter.

Credit cards are any magnetic, electronic, or other technological instrument resulting from the execution of a credit contract entered between a financial intermediary and another person to facilitate the goods and services of affiliated businesses.

Debit cards are any magnetic, electronic, or other technological instrument that allows the cardholder to make purchases or make cash withdrawals with automatic debit from his/ her bank account.

Prepaid cards are any magnetic, electronic, or other technological instrument that must be recharged prior to making a purchase at an affiliated business or making cash withdrawals. Consumption made with the card is free until the capital included in the card is exhausted.

For this Superintendency of Banks, e-money is the prepaid monetary value represented by a credit from its issuer, stored electronically on an instrument or device, issued upon the receipt of funds not less than the monetary value issued, accepted as a means of payment by parties other than the issuer, which may be converted into cash or any cash equivalent.

The Superintendency of Banks considers that the issuer is an entity that enters a contract with a client in the Republic of Panama, in which one or more physical or virtual cards, prepaid, debit or credit, for use in local or international trade, are delivered in the agreed manner and conditions.

“VERSATILE TECHNOLOGY INC.” is a corporation established and organized according to the laws of the Republic of Panama, filed on Folio 155643703 in the Commercial Section of the
